CE U's offered to Acupuncturists & Massage Therapists

Dahvid Weiss, Ph.D., L.Ac. has nearly 25 years professional experience within Holistic environments. Vibrational Medicine uses sound as a therapeutic tool to heal body, mind and spirit on all levels using: Acutonics® system of sound healing, Crystal tone bowls, Buddhist Tibetan bowls, Symphonic Planetary gongs, Metatron's Sacred Geometry Healing system (SOUL Therapy), Esoteric Acupuncture, as well as Chinese Herbal Medicine. Dynamic and comprehensive, this system uses tuning forks calibrated to planetary energetics, known as "The Music Of The Spheres"—used by healers for centuries. The Acutonics® system incorporates the Chinese Medical system of meridians and points to influence the body's energy. Additional energy centers, including chakras—12 in the body & additional ones outside the physical realm—are also accessed in this method of healing. In addition to tuning forks, Tibetan bowls, Tibetan bells, tingshas, drums, rattles, and didgeridoo are used, as well as 4 planetary symphonic gongs tuned to planetary frequencies. When others have arrived they've said it feels like entering a "sacred temple" healing space! It has been called a place to bring harmony and healing nourishing the spirit as well as the body. Call for a "Tune Up" treatment to prepare you for a dynamic workshop experience.
